

Joe and Candi

Hello!! We are very excited that you are looking at our match letter. We understand it is difficult to really know who we are based on 4 pages of pictures and words, and therefore hope you decide to meet us in person so we can really shine. We can't express how happy and excited we are to be adding not only a new baby to our family, but an extended family as well. We admire your strength and courage and look forward to walking the adoption journey together.

Warmly,
Joe and Candi
